

How To Repair Metal Clock Statues and Cases

with Jay Holloway - Holloway Trading Company - Austin, TX

Repair and Restoration of Clock Statues and Cases

NAWCC Pacific Northwest
Regional
Murano Hotel, Tacoma WA
May 18-19, 2018

Jay Holloway of Holloway Trading Company – Austin, Tx will be presenting a two day introductory course on methods to repair and restore clock statues and cases May 18, 19, 2018. Attendance is limited to 14.

Day 1, May 18: 9am-3pm

How to Evaluate, Clean, and Prep Your Work
Parts Fabrication and Attaching
Finishing Techniques

Day 2, May 19: 9am-12pm

Making Final Adjustments
Sealing and Protecting

Jay's course is open to the public so register early!

What To Bring

- ⌚ A metal statue or clock case you wish to repair. If you don't have a suitable statue or clock case please let us know by noting that on your registration.
- ⌚ A materials list will be provided to registrants – materials will also be made available to attendees at the time of instruction.

How To Register:

Course Cost: $75.00 for both days
Make Your Check to: NAWCC Chapter 50
On the Note Line Print: Statue Repair

Course Outline – You'll Learn:

- ⌚ How to evaluate a statue and case for repair
- ⌚ How to prep and clean your item
- ⌚ How to repair spelter metal
- ⌚ How to fabricate and attach missing parts
- ⌚ Techniques on finishing: coloring, aging, bronzing
- ⌚ Sealing and protecting your work

Mail your check with your email to:

Gary Myers
10015 NE 201st ST
Bothell, WA 98011
nawcc50@time-hill.org

A confirmation email will be sent to the email you provide with your registration.